“ I hate so bad Mom and I couldn't attend her graveside service today. I loved Aunt Mildred. Her and Grandma were hysterically funny (especially to tease). I can still remember walking up to her house from Grandma's on Meadowbrook Drive. She had NO filter on what she said and that's what I loved about her:). I'm sure it was quite a reunion in heaven when she was reunited with Linda, Floyd, Frances, Margaret and Lois. Much love and prayers for the family during this time.

“ Chasing her and Aunt Frances with a rubber snake always was fun and then referring to her as a "Martin" girl was always fun because she had the same reaction as her sisters. My daughters remember her because she was so funny at my mom's viewing and funeral. Like a true "Martin" girl she did not care about what people thought about her comments. I will remember her from the last time I saw her. Older but still funny as hell.

“ Every Sunday when I was a little girl my family would go out to eat with my grandmother. Everytime we came across a group of birds on a power line my grandmother would always say, "Look those birds are having a meeting." Now everytime I see a group of birds on a power line I will think of my grandmother. I will love and miss her dearly. I will never forget her. I love you Gammaw.

“ When I was a little girl every Sunday we would go out to eat with my grandmother and anytime we would come across birds on a power line my grandmother would always say, "Look at the birds they are having a meeting." Now everytime I see a group of birds on a power line I will always think of her. I love and miss you so much Gammaw. You will always be in my heart.
Love always Raegan.
