“ Neil was one of my favorite people and my favorite customer. Every time he walked in our door he brightened our day. I'm so glad he's not in any pain anymore and has two new good eyes again. No matter how bad things were for him you never would have known. He always had a good attitude. My prayers and love go out to his girls whom I know he loved so much. He always talked about them with such love. RIP Neil

“ I probably new him the shortest amount of time and wish it had been longer but right from the start he earned my respect. He was so down to earth and logical. His humor was wonderful. His courage and strength and outlook unsurpassed. We shared Catholic backgrounds so he got my questions. He will be dearly missed. Prayers for comfort for all who feel his loss. But oh such a blessing to have known him.
