

Oran C. Brasher

December 14, 1942 - August 26, 2013

Oran C. "O. C." Brasher, 70, of Pinson passed away August 26, 2013 at his farm. He was a charter member of Turkey Creek Missionary Baptist Church, a deacon and Sunday school teacher. He was one of the founders of S.T.A.R.T. and instrumental in the formation of Turkey Creek Nature Preserve. He retired from St. Vincent's Hospital as Engineering Project Manager with 30 years of service. He was a graduate of Mortimer Jordan High School. His most important aspect of life was his close walk with God and his un-wavering faith. He was preceded in death by his father and mother. He is survived by his wife of 51 years, Mary J. Brasher; daughter, Debbie (Eddie) Stevens; sons, Jeff (Sandy) Brasher and Darrin Brasher and fiancé, Amanda Howell; grandchildren, Janna (Michael) Bradt, Deeanna Stevens and Samantha Brasher; sister, Billie Mae (James) McCarty; brother, Dennis Brasher. Visitation will be Thursday, August 29, 2013, between 12 Noon and 2 p.m. at Turkey Creek Missionary Baptist Church. The funeral service will follow at 2 p.m. at the church with burial in the adjoining cemetery. The New Gardendale Funeral Home directing.

Tribute Wall

MK

“ I was shocked and saddened today when I saw a bench at the preserve with O.C.'s name on it. He was a neighbor for many years, and farmed the land I lived on along with his wonderful father. So sad to find this out. Melanie Kennedy

---

Melanie Kennedy - June 27, 2014 at 05:25 PM

DB

“ I will deeply miss O.C. He was my friend. He made our vision for Turkey Creek come alive. He gave much to the Pinson Community. I will never forget him. He was a man of God.

Paul Blanchard

---

Dr. Paul Blanchard - September 02, 2013 at 12:07 PM