“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost a child many years ago and my father recently so I can understand your pain. But Jesus gave us a hope in the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Then we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26;19, and Revelation 21;3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible.
Sincerely, Rosemarie

“ To all of Pam's family, I am so sorry, and my thoughts and prayers are with you. I worked at Brookwood in SICU with Pam (on the weekends). Pam was the most compassionate person I ever met! Every time we would have a patient who was really sweet, and who needed some extra TLC, Pam was the one for them. She was a very beautiful person and took care of her fellow employees as well. One time I told her my back was killing me and all of the sudden I felt something large going down the back of my pants, and Pam had shoved a magnet down my pants. And do you know that it really did make my back feel better! She looked really good on Saturday when I saw her, and she was talking about coming back to work! We all loved Pam and she will be very very missed!
