“Ralph was a cherished friend of the highest character, and he and Margaret together made a wonderful team who encouraged, supported and reached out to help others whenever and however they could. He will be very deeply missed, but we know now that his job here is finished and he is resting at the feet of Jesus. And, I am sure he has heard the Father say "well done my good and faithful servant." What a jubilee he must be having with the gathering of his family and friends as they welcome him home. Rest in peace precious friend.
