“ Ricky entered mine and my families life loving my sister being held in her arms and he left our lives loving my sister and in her arms. He is now met by a merciful and loving God. Ricky lived everyday making the most out of that day. He didnt just have lazy days that passed by. He was either having a grand time with family or friends. He made his presence known and is loved by so many. He always made an effort to speak to everyone where he was. He always tried to help others and give advise..he kept it real with ya. I am so grateful to him for loving my sister Teresa and giving her some of the beat times of her life. He is an amazing brother in law. He is an amazing daddy. And he is an amazingly wonderful pawpaw. Jenna sure loves him. I use present tense for someone like him even when gone is forever still in your heart and remains a part of you forever. I love you Ricky, Teresa, Terry.
