

Robert Layne,

June 15, 1927 - June 8, 2010

Layne, Robert "Paw Paw" Joe, age 82, of Fultondale, Al, passed away on June 8, 2010 surrounded by his family. PawPaw was a U.S. Marine Corps veteran of WWII and was preceded in death by his son, Joe Layne, Jr.; grandson, Barrett Stratton; and brothers Earl and James Layne. He retired from Stockham Valve and lived a full life. He ran moonshine, raced cars and loved his family. He was an avid gambler, especially with his nephew Danny and he enjoyed his last casino trip only a month ago. PawPaw did alot with his family and spent lots of time with his grandkids and great grandkids. He loved NASCAR, fishing, working on cars and Alabama football. He was an awesome man and had many favorite sayings but they were not for polite society. He leaves behind his wife of 63 years, Betty Sue Wynn Layne; daughter in law, Moya Layne; grandsons, Justen (Carla) and Josh Layne; granddaughter, Jody Layne Stratton; great grandchildren, Mason Layne, Ivey Layne and Austin Stratton; beloved dog "Charlie" and a host of friends and family. His Memorial Service will be held at 11:00 a.m. Friday, June 11, 2010 at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church with burial in Oakwood Memorial Gardens. Gardendale Funeral Home directing 631-8810.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at First Corinthians 15:26. But Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Then we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Rosemarie
