“ Rodney, yesterday was your borne day. To find out that you, one of the great ones has left us, has me sitting here with a feeling of disbelief. I am literally lost in tears. So many memories are going through my mind. From our first days hired, academy training, me going into labor and you sending an APB out for Tony's car (lol), and then threatened his life for taken 39 minutes for a 22 minutes drive (lol). OMG, the day you told me "Mel and I are having a baby!" Those were BIG BEAUTIFUL TEARS. And finally, the times we would start our conversations; you "Hey sista from a different motha" and myself "Hey my Dreamsicle". With these and other memories, I must fill this deep hole in my heart. I will continue to pray for your family.
Hey my Dreamsicle I will see you again.
Blue for life,
Yogi Turner

“ I graduated with Rodney and he was definitely one of The Good Guys!! I have so many sweet memories of him. His laugh and smile were infectious. No matter where I saw him, he always had a smile on his face and a kind word, no matter how many years it had been since you last saw him. My prayers are for his family for comfort, strength and peace. May God hold you all and Bless you. RIP, sweet friend.

“ I remember when Miss Melanie & Mr. Rodney were teenage sweethearts. It seems it was only yesterday. Ms. Melanie worked as a Pharmacy Tech with me & she was as good as gold. I knew they would make a go of it as a couple & they did. God Bless you Ms. MELANIE & your family.

“ What a great friend you were to the 11 year old little girl who had lost her mom and her dad. Our times in the youth group at North Highlands Baptist church were some of the best times of my life. Singing together with Reflections and all the fun things we use to get into along with Chris Berry. There is no doubt in my mind you have now heard the words WELCOME HOME MY GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT. ❤️
