“ I loved Aunt Ruby Nell and always thought she was so pretty. Her beauty was not just on the outside but was inside her heart as her actions always showed. She was always so much fun to be around and many times she had reasons not to be a lot of fun. God has given her a long life --well we always joked and said she had 9 lives just like a cat as there were so many times when she was a very sick woman. Somehow she always would pull out of the depths of an illness. However, God added another beautiful Christian woman to his heavenly family when he called her to her eternal home. I treasure many fun times with her.

“ When we were kids Ruby was 6 years older and she used to rock me and when she thought I was asleep and would get up to take me to bed, I would tell her that I was just kidding and she would rock me some more. Not only was she my sister but a friend and a good camping buddy. I loved her dearly.
