

Ruth Ferguson

July 14, 1932 - October 6, 2010

Ruth Sargent Ferguson went to be with her Lord and Savior on October 6, 2010. She was reunited with her husband of nearly 58 years, Harold M. Ferguson who preceded her in death. She is survived by her son, Eddie and Tera Ferguson; daughter, Nancy and Billy Dial, Jr.; Grandchildren: Christopher (Gale) Ferguson, Kelly Ferguson and fiance, Nick Archer, Tiffany(Dan) Ehrhart and Emily Dial. Great-grandchildren: Christian Ferguson, Cali Dial, Connor and Danielle Wensel. She is also survived by her sister, Annie Mae Ware and sister-in-law, Betty Sargent and multiple nieces and nephews. She was a long time member of the Mount Olive Quilting Guild where she won many awards for her beautiful handwork. She was a member of The Order of the Eastern Star organization for over 50 years, serving several times as Worthy Matron and Secretary. She was reading the Bible through for the 41st time. She had read the Bible in 11 different versions. She served as Church Clerk and Sunday School teacher. She was a member of First Baptist Church of Mount Olive. Two of the ministries Ruth and Harold enjoyed the most were Judgment House and The Wild Game Feast where Ruth was known for her doughnuts and homemade goodies. Visitation will be from 5-8 PM at Gardendale Funeral Home, 2214 Decatur Highway, on Friday, October 8, 2010 with the funeral on Saturday, October 9, 2010 at 11:00 AM with Rev. Doug Moore officiating. In lieu of flowers, please make contributions to the Children's Ministry of First Baptist Church of Mount Olive 3200 Mount Olive Road, Mount Olive, Alabama 35117.
