Dad, I'm going to miss helping take care of you and you being here at home with us. Carrying you to the barbershop in your old truck and then trimming your hair when you were too sick to go. Watching you sharpen your pocket knives that you always had handy. Getting your mornings started with coffee and breakfast and re watching with you all the old westerns you so dearly loved. The Klondike bar that you always wanted after dinner. So many memories and things that we are all going to miss about you. You always had a smile on your face and a kind word for anyone that came around. We know you are with mother now and pain free and that gives us comfort as you suffered greatly this last year. You were truly a scholar and a gentleman. We love you dad but, you knew that as we always told you and you in return.
