“ Susan, I cannot find the words to express how deeply sorry I am for your loss. I can only imagine the thoughts that must be going through your mind and the answers you are seeking. Psalm 40:1 says, "I waited patiently for the Lord; he turned to me and heard my cry." He hears your cries, Susan, and he will comfort you. You will be in my prayers.

“ Susan: I was quite shocked to hear about your husband passing so suddenly, My deepest sympathy goes out to you and your family. I read the obituary and loved the deer in the background. I know that you and I have shared the hunting stories as my husband is a hunter too. Hope to see you soon and give you a great big hug. God Bless you and your family. Love, Bobbie Thompson E.R. “ Susan, I am saddened to hear about the sudden death of Stanley. I really thought a lot of him. I know I haven't seen either of you in years, but fond memories of you both from school will be with me always. I was out of town when I got the news, I would certainly have been there to pay my respects had I been home. May God's grace sustain you and your daughter in the days and weeks ahead. God Bless you.
