“ Words cannot express or begin to encompass the emotional grief that is involved in a sudden loss of this magnitude. The only promise we are given is that if we believe in the Creator, than we are comforted to know that the absence here is a presence with Him and suffering is nonexistant for this one that we grieve over. Nevertheless, it does not negate your pain. We are broken for you and praying. May you allow yourself that process to greive in a healthy manner.

Even though there are no words that anyone can say to take away your pain, just know you have tons of people lifting you guys up in prayer, and will be holding your hands every step of the way.
