“ When my dad was called as Minister of Music at Good Hope Baptist Church, God began blessing me with memories with the Paynes. In no time at all, I was introduced to Mrs. Renae's sister, Miss Stephany. I had never met a person who achieved so much on their own, while being expected to be dependent on others. I always admired her for the independent woman she was determined to be.

Through Miss Stephany's life, I have learned more than I ever expected. Miss Stephany taught me to appreciate others for who they are because everyone has something to offer this world. She also taught me to show others their worth by listening carefully to the words they say. Her life exhibited diligence in all she did, which is a lost part in the work ethic of many. She thought of others above herself when she surrendered her ability to drive, after her glucose level made her go to sleep under the wheel, landing her in a ditch.

Above all, I thank God that Miss Stephany was a child of God. I praise Him for the memories I had with her, and that me also being a child of God will bless me to see Miss Stephany again. What joy it must be for Miss Stephany to run without pain, praising her Savior with loved ones who were waiting for her!

With many prayers and much love,

Michele, Thank you so much for sharing your beautiful thoughts and memories of Stephany. She was a very special person. Everyone who met her loved her immediately. I hope I can be half the lady she was. Thank you again for all you have done for me and my family this week. You have shown how a true Christian should love and serve.
