“ Just hearing about Terry,my memory goes back to 1972-73. At the Nazarene church camp he and Brenda were in charge of the cafeteria and I was a worker that summer.i was so blessed to have known he and Brenda. My name is Judy Boothe,I was therè with a friend Nancy Stallworth, We later visited them at home in Tarrant. My life is better for having known Terry Kimbrough.

“ Lisa and Mike,

Please know that you and all of your family will all be held up in our prayers. Your dad (Terry) was a gentle, kind man who truly lived out his faith. When we think of TERRY, WE THINK OF psalm 1.

Cherish all your memories, they along with the presence of the Lord are what will see you through your grief.

We love you!
