“ Lewis became a very dear friend to me. I looked forward to his morning visits to my office each day, laughing and talking with him at lunch each day, the surprises he left on my desk, and his little practical jokes. He is a precious soul and I miss him very much. He seemed to touch everyone he met in some way and had a way of making everyone feel special and important. My prayers go up for his family and other friends he left behind. Rest in peace, my friend.

“ I know heaven has gained an angel today, and I know God must have really needed him because I don't think he would have called him home and left us all so sad otherwise. Lewis was one of my favorite people in the whole world. When Lewis showed up or called you knew everything was going to be ok. He will be greatly missed. My prayers are with all of the family and all of our friends, Lewis loved us all and we loved him!
