“ Tommy's passing is a very sad day for us.. He was a very good friend, neighbor and the very best homebuilder. He would do anything in his power to help anybody needing it. He will be greatly missed by all.

Big Tommy was a father figure to more than just his children, whom he loved and cared for dearly. He watched over, guided and even disciplined, when required, the children around the hay field. He was a very good man and will be sorely missed.
