“ I've been through a lot of death; death from diseases, death from accidents, death from violence, and all the consequences of them. And I'm only 23. I never refuse that it may happen to my family too. No, it already happened. I know someday it'll come and I've tried to be prepared. But somehow I just cannot make it. I know those things can happen to me too. I've passed through a lot of medical processes. I feel vulnerable but it's ok. Human is vulnerable. We are not special. It just happens. I was sorrow for a long time but then, someone told me we had to live with the present or we'll never find peace. That's true. That's what people do when it's time for tragic. Live with the present and what we've got now, not what we used to have or will have. Do not be imaginative at this time. We have to know our emotion, know how we feel and just deal with it. That's what I've tried to do for all these years and it keeps me alive. Well, I may talk some crap. Sorry. I never tell my thoughts to anyone because my imagination tells me that no one wants to hear. But I just want to say it.

“ My thoughts are with your family. May the words in John 11:20-27 give you hope and comfort.

“ We are praying for Tommy, Allison, Grant, Alex, and Kyle in this sad time of sorrow. We are also praying for anyone who knew Mr. Sandlin, because if you knew him at all, his optimistic out look on life, and his love for the Lord was bestowed on you the moment you met him. He will truly be missed. I know that we will meet him again in that wonderful place called heaven.
