“ My sincere condolences to Munkus family, it is hard enough to try to put into words the emotions you are dealing with right now. True comfort can only be found by knowing the true Creator. Knowing that He hates death: he even views it as an enemy.(1 Corinthian 15:26) He has “a yearning” to conquer that enemy, to undo death by means of the resurrection. He longs to bring back those who are in his memory and to see them live on earth again-Job 14:14,15. And for the mean time“ He heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds.”(Psalms 147:3). So trust that He can comfort you.

“ Tomorrow is going to be one of the hardest things I have ever done... I'm going to tell all what I saw , how you fought your demons and the days that won.. How you chose to seek God and leave your past where it belonged - behind you... and how I saw a broken young man get closer to whole again.

I am going to tell them of the Will that I knew. That had the heart of a Lion and the strength of a soldier... and that you were my friend , I will miss you.

Rest Easy , Little Brother -
