“ *We thank our Aunt Nay so much for the wonderful Easter Sundays at her family's home years ago, and the ham she cooked was always so good. Also, she always kept her home really, really clean and very organized. And her artwork was amazing, especially the portrait of the toddler Jesus in her Earthly Dad's carpenter shop. Wish we could be there on Friday for her burial, but our schedule will not permit. But we spent as much time as we could on the phone with her and visiting her when she was close by. God bless your spirit, Aunt Nay, and happy eternity with our Mom (Nell Juline) and all your other family and friends in Heaven, and y'all's dog Sammy too. Love, and God bless!
